NHL Dallas Stars Coming to Charlottetown; Coaching Staff to Participate in Coaching Clinic

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, July 27, 2010 – The City of Charlottetown recently announced that the NHL Dallas Stars will open its 2010 Training Camp in Charlottetown.

“We’re very excited to start our 2010 Training Camp in Charlottetown, PEI,” said Stars Assistant General Manager Frank Provenzano. “Clifford Lee and Wayne Long worked very hard to put this deal together. We are really looking forward to bringing the Dallas Stars to PEI.”

“This is a wonderful opportunity for our city,” said Mayor Clifford Lee. “Charlottetown is an award-winning and internationally recognized event hosting destination. Today’s exciting announcement further reinforces our position in the event attraction market place. Our community looks forward to welcoming the Dallas Stars and extending our warm hospitality.”

Dallas’ first practice in Charlottetown will be Saturday, September 18, with on-ice training sessions held at the MacLauchlan Arena at the CARI Complex, which features two sheets of NHL-regulation size ice. All practice sessions will be open to the public (times to be determined).

The team will skate for three days in Charlottetown (September 17-20), and will also hold an intersquad game on Sunday, September 19, at the Charlottetown Civic Centre.

Dallas Stars Staff to Participate in Hockey PEI Coach Clinic

Hockey PEI is pleased to announce that in conjunction with the Dallas Stars training camp, they will be hosting a Development 1 coaching clinic September 18 and 19th. The clinic will be held at the Charlottetown Civic Center. As part of this clinic, Stars head coach Marc Crawford will be offering a presentation to the coaching delegates.

“We are extremely pleased about this opportunity to have Marc and the Dallas organization be part of our coaching clinic and provide some of their experience and insight to some of our coaches”, stated Hockey PEI President Eugene Power. “This is an opportunity that presented itself and we felt it was something we could not pass up. We appreciate the gesture and cooperation of the Dallas Stars organization and the organizing committee from the City of Charlottetown”.

All delegates that attend the clinic will also receive a ticket to the intersquad game on September 19th.

Individuals interested in attending this coaching clinic may contact Hockey PEI Technical Director Mike White at 902.368.4334 or mike@hockeypei.com. Coaches may also register by visiting the Hockey PEI website at <http://www.hockeypei.com/clinics.php>
